International leadership influencer at strategic and operational levels enabling boards, executive leaders and organizations to accelerate in a digital world

Jeremy combines business and digital transformation expertise, leadership knowledge and commercial success as an international CEO and executive board officer in the UK and Asia, with his experience as a corporate learning and human capital professional of over 25 years. His business, Performance Works International, helps boards, leaders and managers define strategies to implement digital and people transformations for the modern workplace through consulting, workshopping and coaching.

He has been recognized most recently for this by The Independent newspaper, UK, and Business Reporter magazine as winner of the 'Best of Global Business 2023' Award for his body of work in digital, workforce and leadership transformation; including his own multi-platform 'Rethink Leadership' Podcast, since 2020, which is now one of the top 1.5% of podcasts in the world.

Jeremy is the noted global authority on how to effectively empower people backed up by his international #1 best-selling book: 'Unleash the Inner CEO - Make distributed leadership a reality'. He has also published best-sellers 'OpenHR™ - The human capital manifesto for the blended workforce' and 'The Digital Leadership Playbook - A step-by-step guide to digital transformation for leaders and boards'.

As a regular Keynote speaker, researcher, and author of over 30 industry White Papers, Jeremy is regular media commentator in publications including Forbes, CEO Today, Medium, Inc.com, The Times of London, inc.com and more.

Jeremy also co-founded the social enterprise DiversITy-talent, aimed at changing misconceptions about careers in modern business and technology, to engage, inspire and enable young people and untapped talent pools into the huge potential and possibilities they have for their futures.

"It is an undeniable fact that Jeremy is one of the most inspirational speakers that I have ever met. His profound knowledge of Digital, Leadership and HR Transformation, along with practical experience in various types of company, allowed him to give us valuable information in the field. He possessed a natural charisma, and ability to keep the whole room excited."

"I have worked with Jeremy for many years now and his ability to take our global and regional leadership teams to a new level of thinking always amazes me. Jeremy always adds a human touch to the digital and data advances we need to make for clients and markets - I would recommend Jeremy to any company that wishes to compete in a different playing field to its competition."
